THE OFFER AND PROPOSED SENIOR NOTES OFFERING

Introduction

On 6 June 2016, the Company commenced the Offer to tender for repurchase for cash its Convertible Bonds. The amount that the Company will pay for each HK$2,000,000 in principal amount of the Convertible Bonds validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be determined pursuant to a modified Dutch auction procedure (the "Modified Dutch Auction Procedure"). Under the Modified Dutch Auction Procedure, the Company will determine, in its sole discretion, following expiration of the Offer (a) the Acceptance Amount and (b) the Purchase Price, taking into account the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds so tendered and the offer prices specified (or deemed to be specified, as set out below) by tendering Bondholders. The Purchase Price for the Convertible Bonds will represent the lowest price that will enable the Company to purchase an aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds which equals the Acceptance Amount and shall be an amount divisible by HK$2,500. The Offer will be made available to the Bondholders who are outside the United States.

The Bondholders should refer to full details of the terms and conditions of the Offer which are set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum issued by the Company on 6 June 2016. The acceptance by the Company of the Convertible Bonds validly tendered and not withdrawn on or prior to the Expiration Deadline (as defined below) is conditional on, among others, the completion of the Proposed Senior Notes Offering.

The Company has appointed Goldman Sachs as the Dealer Manager, and HSBC as the tender agent in relation to the Offer.

In conjunction with the Offer, the Company proposes to conduct an international offering of Senior Notes. The Senior Notes will be guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors. The net proceeds of the Senior Notes will be deposited into the Escrow Account pursuant to the Escrow Agreement. The Senior Notes will be secured by a security interest over the Escrow Account pursuant to the Escrow Charge and on a second-ranking basis by a floating charge over the assets of the Company other than any assets located in the PRC or Capital Stock of subsidiaries. The collateral will be shared, on a pari passu basis, with the Convertible Bonds. The Senior Notes will only be offered and sold in an institutional offering to qualified institutional buyers in the United States in reliance on Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act and outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S.

The Offer

Tender Offer Memorandum

The Offer commenced at 09:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on 6 June 2016 and will expire at the Expiration Deadline at 16:00 p.m. (London time) on 14 June 2016 (the "Expiration Deadline") unless extended or earlier terminated by the Company. An appropriate announcement will be made if and when the Expiration Deadline is extended or earlier terminated. Bondholders who validly tender the Convertible Bonds by the Expiration Deadline (and who do not validly withdraw their Tender Instructions) and whose Convertible Bonds are accepted for purchase will be entitled to receive the Purchase Price for each HK$2,000,000 in principal amount of the Convertible Bonds accepted by the Company on the Settlement Date, subject to the terms and conditions of the Offer as set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum. The final results of the Offer, including the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds accepted for purchase (if any), are expected to be announced on 15 June 2016. Once the Company has announced the final results, the Company's acceptance of Tender Instructions (as defined in the Tender Offer Memorandum) in accordance with the terms of the Offer will be irrevocable and will be subject only to satisfaction of the New Issue Condition (as defined below) and the Transaction Conditions (as defined below). Convertible Bonds repurchased by the Company will be immediately cancelled. Convertible Bonds which have not been validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will remain outstanding.

Conditions to the Offer

The Company's obligation to accept for purchase, and to pay for, the Convertible Bonds validly tendered pursuant to the Offer is subject to the satisfaction (or, in the case of the Transaction Conditions only, waiver) of the Transaction Conditions (as defined below) and its New Issue Condition (as defined below):

1. (i) there not having been threatened, instituted or pending any action or proceeding before any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative body that: (1) makes or seeks to make illegal the payment for, or acceptance of payment for, any of the Convertible Bonds pursuant to the terms and conditions contained in the Tender Offer Memorandum; (2) would or might result in a delay in, or restrict, the ability of the Company to purchase any of the Convertible Bonds; or (3) imposes or seeks to impose limitations on the ability of the Company to purchase the Convertible Bonds; (ii) there having been no actual or threatened legal impediment to the purchase of the Convertible Bonds; and (iii) there having been no change or development, including a prospective change or development, that has or may have a material adverse effect on the Company or the market price or the value of the Convertible Bonds (the "Transaction Conditions").

Results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2015

Revenue

Infant formula products

Revenue within the infant formula products segment decreased by RMB117.8 million (US$18.2 million) in the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to RMB855.4 million (US$132.1 million) in the prior corresponding period. This decrease was primarily attributable to the decline in volume and average selling prices for our ADiMILTM branded products as a result of increased competition in the mid-tier segment. Both our BiostimeTM and ADiMILTM branded products experienced declines in volume as a result of distributors reducing their inventory holding levels in anticipation of upcoming regulatory changes which are expected to reduce the number of products on the market. This was partially offset by an increase in the average selling prices of BiostimeTM branded products.

Adult nutrition and care products

Revenue within the adult nutrition and care products segment increased by RMB225.0 million (US$34.7 million) in the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to RMB375.9 million (US$58.1 million), Swisse revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily attributable to increased sales volume linked to the continued growth in underlying demand for Swisse products in China.

Other pediatric products

Revenue from other pediatric products decreased by RMB10.0 million (US$1.5 million) in the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to RMB140.3 million (US$21.7 million) in the prior year period. This was primarily the result of a decrease in sales from our baby care products due to intense competition from lower cost imported diapers through e-commerce channels. Revenue within the probiotics supplements segment increased by 11.8% to RMB93.2 million (US$14.4 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB83.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2015 as a result of increased retail sales due to cross selling activities within our infant formula products segment.

Other income and gains

Our other income and gains was RMB181.2 million (US$28.0 million), or RMB174.6 million (US$27.0 million) excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to RMB32.1 million (US$5.1 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily attributable to a net foreign exchange gain associated with the drawn indebtedness under our Bridge Loan relating which we entered into in connection with the Acquisition.

Selling and distribution costs

Our selling and distribution costs decreased by RMB119.9 million (US$18.4 million) or a reduction of 32.8% excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2015 and remained stable including Swisse due to the inclusion of Swisse costs. This decrease was primarily attributable to a decrease in costs in our pediatric nutrition and care products segment for advertising and promotion due to a different timing allocation of marketing efforts and also a reduction in our headcount as a result of our reorganization in the last quarter of 2015 following the Acquisition.

Administrative expenses

Our administrative expenses increased to RMB75.5million (US$11.6 million), or to RMB45.3 million (US$7.0 million) excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to RMB34.5 million (US$5.3 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2015. Our administrative expenses excluding Swisse increased 31.3% due to amortization expenses resulting from share options granted to employees on December 29, 2015.

Other expenses

Our other expenses decreased to RMB31.5 million (US$4.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB42.8 million (US$6.6 million), or RMB25.4 million (US$3.9 million) excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This decrease was primarily attributable to a net foreign exchange loss recorded in the first quarter of 2015 as a result of foreign currency translation effects.

Finance costs

Our finance costs increased to RMB80.3 million (US$12.4 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016, which was primarily attributable to an increase in interest expense in relation to our Bridge Loan entered into in connection with the Acquisition.

Income tax expense

Our income tax expense increased to RMB147.8 million (US$22.8 million), or RMB78.9 million (US$12.2 million) excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB44.9 million (US$6.9 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily attributable to the increase in our profits before tax as a result of the Acquisition.

Profit for the period

Our profit for the period increased to RMB429.3 million (US$66.3 million), or RMB288.2 million (US$44.5 million) excluding Swisse, for the three months ended March 31, 2016 from RMB91.3 million (US$14.5 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily attributable to the increase in our revenue and gross profit from our adult nutrition and care products segment, the increase in income from foreign currency effects and the reduction in our effective tax rate. Excluding the net exchange gain of RMB159.7 million (US$24.7 million), our profit for the period increased to RMB269.6 million, or RMB128.5 million excluding Swisse for the three months ended March 31, 2016.

Net cash flows

Net cash flows from operating activities

For the three months ended March 31, 2016, our net cash flows from operating activities amounted to RMB514.7 million (US$79.5 million), which were primarily driven by our EBITDA performance.

Inventory-related cash out-flows of RMB102.7 million (US$15.9 million) were primarily due to an increase in stock for our SwisseTM branded products in anticipation of continued higher sales levels and the RMB204.6 million (US$31.6 million) cash inflow from trade and bills receivable, which were both largely the result of seasonality.

Net cash flows from investing activities

For the three months ended March 31, 2016, our net cash flows from investing activities amounted to RMB90.3 million (US$13.9 million). This included the receipt of RMB118.2 million (US$18.2 million) of cash interest relating to time deposits that expired in the period and a payment of RMB132.0 million (US$20.4 million) made by us to the sellers related to the working capital purchase price adjustment in relation to the Acquisition.

Net cash flows from financing activities

For the three months ended March 31, 2016, our net cash flows used in financing activities amounted to RMB251.7 million (US$38.9 million). This was driven by RMB1,151.4 million (US$177.7 million) in repayments of bank loans which we had incurred as a result of funds that were held in time deposits. This cash outflow was largely offset by RMB953.9 million (US$147.3 million) we received from pledged time deposits which were not rolled over.

Inventory

As of March 31, 2016, our provisions for impairment of inventories was RMB29.5 million (US$4.6 million).

Trade and bills receivables

As of March 31, 2016, we had provided for impairment for trade and bills receivables and other receivables of RMB5.2 million (US$0.8 million). Such provisions were for individually impaired receivables relating to consumers that were in default or delinquent in making payments. We do not hold any collateral or other security over such impaired amount.

Trade and bills payable

As of March 31, 2016, we had trade and bills payable of RMB610.9 million (US$94.3 million). The increase in trade and bills payable in the first quarter of 2016 was primarily due to longer credit periods for our Swisse operations.

Other payables and accruals

As of March 31, 2016, we had other payables and accruals of RMB847.7 million (US$130.9 million). The decrease in other payables and accruals was primarily due to the payment made to the sellers in connection with the Acquisition and payment of certain marketing and promotions expenses incurred in late 2015.

Capital Expenditures

Our net capital expenditures were RMB39.9 million (US$6.2 million) for the three months ended March 31, 2016.
